

Top international anticorruption experts call to ensure maximum independence of Ukraine's anticorruption agencies

02.12.2017

International Anti-Corruption Advisory Board (IACAB) calls to ensure maximum independence of anticorruption agencies and to secure them from groundless attacks as well as to launch the specialized anticorruption court as quickly as possible.

It is stipulated in the first IACAB report that provides conclusions and recommendations set to increase the efficiency of Ukraine's anticorruption agencies. The report was presented by Carlos Castresana and Drago Kos - members of the International Anti-Corruption Advisory Board at a press-briefing at Ukraine Crisis Media Centre.

Video of the briefing and more details.